

USA State Laws

CALIFORNIA

The California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) provides California residents with specific rights, including the right to delete or request access to certain types of data and to ask us not to sell your personal information. Under CCPA, businesses that process these requests must publish information about them.

Do Not Track

We do not recognize or respond to browser-initiated Do Not Track signals, as the internet industry is currently still working on Do Not Track standards, implementations, and solutions.

California Shine the Light

California law permits users who are California residents to request and obtain from us once a year, free of charge, a list of the third parties to whom we have disclosed their 'personal information' (if any, and as defined under applicable California law) for their direct marketing purposes in the prior calendar year, as well as the type of personal information disclosed to those parties. We do not sell user information to third parties for direct marketing purposes.

California Erasure Law

If you are a California resident under the age of 18 and are a registered user of our Services, you may be entitled to request that we remove from our Services content you posted to our services that can be accessed by any other user (whether registered or not). Please note that any content that is removed from our services may still remain on our servers and in our systems. To request removal of content under this provision, don't hesitate to get in touch with us and provide us with a description of the content and the location of the content on our Services, and any other information we may require to consider your request. Please note that removal of content under this provision does not ensure complete or comprehensive removal of the content or information posted on the Services by you.

NEVADA DISCLOSURES

Requests to Opt-Out (Do Not Sell Information)

Nevada allows consumers to opt-out of the sale of "covered information" collected through a website or online service. "Covered information" includes: (i) first and last name; (ii) home or other physical address; (iii) email address; (iv) telephone number; (v) social security number; (vi) any identifier that allows a person to contact a consumer; or (vii) other information that is personally identifiable.

How

You may submit a Request to Delete through our Privacy Center or don't hesitate to get in touch with us. We will confirm your request and provide any information required to verify it.

When

We endeavor to respond to a verifiable consumer request within 60 days of its receipt. If we require more time (up to 30 days), we will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing.

1. Third Parties

Requests from an authorized agent must include proof of a signed consumer authorization subject to verification from the consumer.

2. Denial of Requests

We cannot respond to your request or provide you with personal information if we cannot verify your identity or authority to make the request and confirm the personal information relates to you. Making a verifiable consumer request does not require you to create an account with us. We will only use personal information provided in a verifiable consumer request to verify the requestor's identity or authority to make the request. In addition, we reserve the right to deny your request on any basis provided under state or federal law.

3. Disclaimer

We will process your request to disclose information regarding information collected and/or shared pursuant to Nevada law as to the name submitted by you. Please note that our search will be limited to the name provided, if there are other variations of this name (e.g., spelling, initials, suffix) they must be specified, otherwise they will not be captured in the search.

OREGON DISCLOSURES

1. Your Rights and Choices

The Oregon Consumer Privacy Act (OCPA) provides Oregon residents with specific rights regarding their personal information. This section describes your OCPA rights and explains how to exercise those rights. Please note, Oregon has a specific definition of personal data (referred to herein coextensively as personal information) that applies to Oregon residents:

“Personal data” means data, derived data or any unique identifier that is linked to or is reasonably linkable to a consumer or to a device that identifies, is linked to or is reasonably linkable to one or more consumers in a household. “Personal data” does not include deidentified data or data that: (A) Is lawfully available through federal, state or local government records or through widely distributed media; or (B) A controller reasonably has understood to have been lawfully made available to the public by a consumer.

- Request to Know

A request that a business disclose personal information that it has collected about the consumer (see details below)

- Request to Delete

A request that a business delete personal information about the consumer.

- Request to Correct

A request that a business correct inaccurate personal information that it maintains about you.

Where Deleteme believes you will not be negatively impacted by the deletion of the data you wish corrected, we will simply delete the inaccurate data in response to Requests to Correct.

- Request to Opt-Out

A request that a business not sell the consumer's personal information to third parties, use that information to perform targeted advertising, or profile the consumer in furtherance of decisions that produce legal effects or effects of similar significance.

- Revocation of Consent to Processing

An Oregon consumer may revoke their consent to the processing of their personal information under OCPA.

2. Requests to Know

How

You may submit a Request to Know through our Request for Access Form or don't hesitate to get in touch with us. A Request to Know covers personal information that Deleteme has collected about the consumer, including : (1) Specific pieces of personal information that a business has collected about the consumer; (2) Categories of personal information it has collected about the consumer; (3) Categories of sources from which the personal information is collected; (4) Categories of personal information that the business sold or disclosed for a business purpose about the consumer; (5) Categories of third parties to whom the personal information was sold or disclosed for a business purpose; (6) The specific third parties, other than natural persons, to whom the personal information was sold or disclosed for a business purpose; and (7) The business or commercial purpose for collecting or selling personal information.

When

We endeavor to respond to a verifiable consumer request within 45 days of its receipt. If we require more time (up to 90 days), we will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing. You may only make a verifiable consumer request for access or data portability twice within a 12-month period. We will confirm your request and inform you of any information required to verify the request.

3. Requests to Delete

How

You may submit a Request to Delete through our Request for Deletion Form or don't hesitate to get in touch with us. We will confirm your request and inform you of any information required to verify the request.

When

We endeavor to respond to a verifiable consumer request within 45 days of its receipt. If we require more time (up to 90 days), we will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing.

4. Requests to Correct

How

You may submit a Request to Correct through our Request to Correct Form or don't hesitate to get in touch with us. We will confirm your request and inform you of any information required to verify the request. Where Deleteme believes you will not be negatively impacted by the deletion of the data you wish corrected, we will simply delete the inaccurate data in response to Requests to Correct.

When

We endeavor to respond to a verifiable consumer request within 45 days of its receipt. If we require more time (up to 90 days), we will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing.

5. Requests to Opt-Out (Do Not Sell Information)

How

You may submit a Request to Opt-Out through our Do Not Sell My Personal Information or don't hesitate to get in touch with us. We will confirm your request and inform you of any information required to verify the request. If Deleteme, however, has a good-faith, reasonable, and documented belief that a request to opt-out is fraudulent (see above for more details on situations which may lead Deleteme to suspect fraud), Deleteme may deny the request. In instances of denial for suspected fraud, Deleteme shall inform the requestor that it will not comply with the request and shall provide an explanation why it believes the request is fraudulent.

When

We endeavor to respond to a verifiable consumer request within 15 days of its receipt

6. Revocation of Consent to Processing

How

You may revoke your consent for processing of your personal information through our Do Not Sell My Personal Information or don't hesitate to get in touch with us. We will confirm your revocation and inform you of any information required to verify the revocation. If Deleteme, however, has a good-faith, reasonable, and documented belief that a revocation is fraudulent (see above for more details on situations which may lead Deleteme to suspect fraud), Deleteme may deny the revocation. In instances of denial for suspected fraud, Deleteme shall inform the requestor that it will not comply with the revocation and shall provide an explanation why it believes the revocation is fraudulent.

When

We endeavor to respond to a verifiable consumer revocation of consent for processing within 15 days of its receipt

7. Additional Request Details

- Third Parties

Requests from an authorized agent must include proof of a signed consumer authorization subject to verification from the consumer.

- Denial of Requests

We cannot respond to your request or provide you with personal information if we cannot verify your identity or authority to make the request and confirm the personal information relates to you. Making a verifiable consumer request does not require you to create an account with us, but if you do not have an account, we may need additional information to verify your identity (e.g., a driver's license or passport). We will only use personal information provided in a verifiable consumer request to verify the requestor's identity or authority to make the request. In addition, we reserve the right to deny your request for any basis provided for under state or federal law.

- Disclaimer

We will process your request to disclose information regarding information collected and/or shared pursuant to the OCPA as to the name submitted by you. Please note that our search will be limited to the name provided, if there are other variations of this name (e.g., spelling, initials, suffix) they must be specified, otherwise they will not be captured in the search.

- Non-Discrimination

You have the right to not be discriminated against or receive discriminatory treatment for exercising your OCPA rights. We will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your OCPA rights.

8. Appeals

You have the right to appeal Deleteme's decision to deny your consumer request within a reasonable period of time from receiving such denial. Deleteme responds to requests via email and will inform you if your request is subject to a final denial. At this point, you may respond to this email to request an appeal of this denial. In this email requesting an appeal, please provide the basis on which you wish to appeal your denial. Deleteme will respond to all appeals within 45 days of receiving an email containing your appeal.

GENERAL U.S. RESIDENT PRIVACY DISCLOSURES

1. Your Rights and Choices

There are many U.S. states which offer their residents specific rights regarding their personal information under state-specific privacy laws. States with specific privacy laws not already listed above, in effect now, include Colorado, Virginia, Connecticut, Montana, Utah, and Texas.

States with laws coming into effect in the next two years include, as of the Effective Date of this privacy policy, Iowa, Minnesota, Delaware, Tennessee, Indiana, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Nebraska, Kentucky, Maryland, and Rhode Island. If you are a resident of one of the states listed above, the privacy request tools outlined in this section will meet or exceed your rights under your state's privacy law.

If you are a resident of any other state of the U.S., Deleteme is a company founded on the principles of protecting individuals from fraud and takes the privacy of individuals extremely seriously. In general, Deleteme believes that all individuals, in all states, should enjoy the right to ensure their personal information is handled appropriately. On that principle, Deleteme offers all residents of the United States the ability to control their data through consumer privacy requests, regardless of the state they live in, using our privacy request tools outlined in this section. For these U.S. residents not subject to state-specific laws listed above, Deleteme will still process and fulfill those consumers' requests. However, due to the operational burden of responding to such requests, unless Deleteme needs to verify a consumer's identity, Deleteme may not offer the same level of followup on these requests or guarantee response timelines to such requests as we would for individuals covered by the specific privacy laws outlined above. Deleteme will process the requests independently of response or followup.

We will confirm your request and inform you of any information required to verify the request. If Deleteme, however, has a good-faith, reasonable, and documented belief that a request to opt-out is fraudulent (see above for more details on situations which may lead Deleteme to suspect fraud), Deleteme may deny the request. In instances of denial for suspected fraud, Deleteme shall inform the requestor that it will not comply with the request and shall provide an explanation why it believes the request is fraudulent.

When

We endeavor to respond to a verifiable consumer request within 15 days of its receipt

6. Additional Request Details

- Third Parties

Requests from an authorized agent must include proof of a signed consumer authorization subject to verification from the consumer.

- Denial of Requests

We cannot respond to your request or provide you with personal information if we cannot verify your identity or authority to make the request and confirm the personal information relates to you. Making a verifiable consumer request does not require you to create an account with us, but if you do not have an account, we may need additional information to verify your identity (e.g., a driver's license or passport). We will only use personal information provided in a verifiable consumer request to verify the requestor's identity or authority to make the request. In addition, we reserve the right to deny your request for any basis provided for under state or federal law.

- Disclaimer

We will process your request to disclose information regarding information collected and/or shared pursuant to applicable Privacy Law as to the name submitted by you. Please note that our search will be limited to the name provided, if there are other variations of this name (e.g., spelling, initials, suffix) they must be specified, otherwise they will not be captured in the search.

- Non-Discrimination

You have the right to not be discriminated against or receive discriminatory treatment for exercising your rights under applicable Privacy Law. We will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your rights under applicable Privacy Law.

7. Appealing Denied Requests

There are many state Privacy Laws that provide you with the right to appeal denials of requests made pursuant to applicable Privacy law as outlined by this privacy policy. The following section outlines how these appeals are made and describes the options you have if your request is denied. Please note you should not make an appeal before you have made a request pursuant to your rights and that request has been denied.

Deleteme responds to requests via email and will inform you if your request is subject to a final denial. At this point, you may respond to this email to request an appeal of this denial. In this email requesting an appeal, please provide the basis on which you wish to appeal your denial.

Deleteme will respond to all appeals within 45 days of receiving an email containing your appeal.

8. Texas Data Broker Disclosure

Deleteme , by the nature of selling services assisting in fraud detection by providing personal information on individuals, is considered a data broker under many U.S. laws – including the Texas Data Broker Act – as Deleteme derives the majority of its revenue from these fraud detection services.
